2 Detroit - Major Donation Provides Transportation for Detroit Students

Comerica Bank Launches Transportation Fund to Kick Off DPS Foundation Annual Appeal

The Detroit Public Schools Foundation's Give Back to Detroit Schools Annual Appeal kicked off with a generous gift from Comerica Bank. As the first corporate contributor to the Annual Appeal, Comerica launched a Transportation Fund through the DPS Foundation to support learning outside of the classroom for Detroit students, with an initial donation of $10,000.

The fund will support transportation for approximately 40 field trips and competition destinations, benefitting approximately 2,000 Detroit Public Schools students. Comerica also committed to sending the elementary students from John R. King Academic and Performing Arts Academy to experience the African Adventure Stories program at the Detroit Zoo and to provide funds for Detroit high school students to attend Michigan College Access Network's Detroit College Night at Youthville.
